

AMPHIBIANS

CAECILIANS

Caecilians are legless amphibians that often live underground. There are close to 200 species of them. They have small eyes and come in different colours. The largest caecilian known can grow up to 5 feet in length!

Osaecilia ochrocephala

Photo by Brian Gratwicke | CC BY 2.0 | background removed | bit.ly/3KXYCud

Epicrionops

Photo by Leonardo J.C.L. Moraes et al. | CC BY 2.0 | background removed | <https://bit.ly/44ns6e>

Geotrypetes seraphini

Ichthyophis kodaguensis

Photo by Bhatta G. et al. | CC BY 4.0 | background removed | bit.ly/3Sag8bY

Microcaecilia dermatophaga

Photo by Wilkinson M. et al. | CC BY 2.5 | background removed | bit.ly/3Ea40x

Caecilia pulchraserrana

Photo by Andrés R. et al. | CC BY-SA 4.0 | background removed | bit.ly/3EyQPAK

